SILENT ON GUMP ASSAULT

Trustees of Estate Join Evelyn Nesbit in Request for Re-hearing

By Associated Press
Philadelphia—Although he was declared sane and fully capable of managing his affairs by a jury in common pleas court Tuesday night, Harry K. Thaw Wednesday is still in the Pennsylvania hospital for mental and nervous diseases, where he has been confined for the last seven years.

After the verdict had been brought in, William A. Gray, counsel for Evelyn Nesbit, Thaw's divorced wife whose 13-year-old son was permitted to intervene in the trial, requested the usual four days in which to file a motion and reasons for a new trial. The motion was granted and Judge Monahan before whom the case was heard, held Thaw in the custody of the court pending its disposition. No time was set for the hearing of the motion. Meanwhile Thaw must remain in the asylum.

TRUSTEES OPPOSE RELEASE
In announcing that he would ask for another trial, Mr. Gray said he also spoke for Arthur G. Dickson, counsel for the trustees of Thaw's estate, who also opposed his release.

Thaw and his mother, Mrs. Mary C. Thaw, received news of the verdict in Mrs. Thaw's suite at the Ritz-Carlton hotel. Thaw said he would not make any definite plans for the future until his case finally was disposed of.

Thaw returned to the asylum shortly before midnight. He did not say whether he would voluntarily go to New York to answer the indictment charging him with an attack on Frederick Gump, Jr., a Kansas high school boy, should he eventually gain his freedom.

Civil suit for $550,000 damages entered against Thaw by Gump's father was settled out of court last January.

Since he shot and killed Stanford White in New York in June, 1908, Thaw has spent about 16 years in jails and asylums.

LOUISIANA ELECTS
STATE OFFICIALS

Republicans Polled Less Than 500 Out of 18,000 Votes in New Orleans

New Orleans — Democratic candidates for all state and parish offices and legislature nominated in the January and February primaries were formally elected Tuesday's general election. Democratic nomination in Louisiana is equivalent to election. Henry L. Fuqua of Baton Rouge will succeed John M. Parker as governor. The Republicans for the first time in 16 years placed candidates on the ticket for three state offices—governor, lieutenant governor and secretary of state. It was indicated the Republicans polled less than 500 votes out of an estimated total of 18,000 cast in New Orleans. James F. Milliken was the candidate for governor on the Republican ticket. The vote in the city was believed to be indicative of that throughout the state.

President Has Lead of 80,000 Votes with List Constantly Growing

By Associated Press
Newark, N. J.—President Coolidge Tuesday overwhelmed Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California in the New Jersey preferential primary. With 478 election districts still unreported, the president had a lead of nearly 80,000 votes which was being increased by belated returns.

President Coolidge captured the entire state of 31 Republican national convention delegates, seven of whom were elected at large and 24 by district. The Coolidge delegates at large were leading their Johnson opponents by approximately 70,000 votes while in the congressional districts, the Coolidge candidates are well ahead in every contest, although there were divisions within the Coolidge forces and the Anti-Saloon league opposed two of the Coolidge delegates at large.

Returns from 2,035 election districts out of 2,814 in the state gave for presidential preference: Coolidge 80,275; Johnson 10,457.

KIMBERLY RESULTS
IN ARREST WARRANT

Warrant for Arrest on Manslaughter Charge Follows Coroner's Probe

A warrant charging manslaughter will be the result of a coroner's inquest held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in Kimberly to investigate the cause of the death of Benjamin Claassen of that village.

Claassen died in Appleton Monday following internal injuries received in an automobile collision Sunday afternoon in front of the Bank of Kimberly.

The coroner's jury after deliberating for about 15 minutes declared that death was due to an accident in which Claassen while riding a motorcycle was struck from behind by a Jewett car owned by Gust Hanges and driven by Joseph Schultz, both of Kimberly.

No mention was made of negligence on the part of the driver or owner, but John A. Lonsdorf, district attorney, declared that enough information was brought out in the testimony of seven or eight witnesses to warrant an arrest. It was to be decided Wednesday who is to be charged with the offense.

Hanges and Schultz both are employees of the Chicago and Northwestern railway. There were two other passengers in the death car, Eystander and occupants of the Jewett car were called in to testify before Dr. H. E. Ellsworth, coroner, and the jury.

The jury consisted of Joseph Sandhofer, A. F. McIntyre, Fred J. Dohr, Alex. Malcolm, A. W. Fulcer and John C. Ritten.

NORWALK MAN

Stranger's Body Identified from Auto License—Was Visiting Daughter

George Webb, 60, of Norwalk, Wis., who was visiting his son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Finch, who live south of New London, was instantly killed early Wednesday morning when an automobile which he was driving was struck by a Soo line train on a grade crossing at Readfield. The body was identified by study of automobile license records which showed that the car license had been issued to Mr. Webb. The body has been sent to Norwalk.

Mr. Webb, his wife and their son Everett drove to New London last Sunday to attend the wedding of their son, Floyd M. Webb to Miss Helen L. Pasch on Tuesday. The trip was made with difficulty and Mrs. Webb and Everett returned to their home by train, leaving Mr. Webb to visit at the Finch home until roads were fit to travel. He went to Readfield Wednesday morning to buy wire to fix fences on the Finch farm and was on his way back when his car was hit by the train. He was killed at once and his car was a total wreck. The body was taken to Weyauwega where authorities communicated with Norwalk to establish identification. His relatives at New London were notified and they took charge of the body.

GEORGIA CHOICE

Democrats Meet to Choose Delegate to National Convention

By Associated Press
Atlanta, Ga.—Georgia Democrats will meet in state convention here Wednesday to name their delegates to the national convention and instruct them to vote for the nomination of William G. McAdoo for president.

McAdoo's overwhelming victory in the state primaries over Senator Oscar Underwood of Alabama assured him the delegation.

One of the principal questions to be decided by the gathering is whether women shall be allowed equal representation on the delegation.

That this will be allowed virtually is assured, according to pre-convention forecasts. Another proposal is that 55 delegates be chosen, versus the last two national gatherings.

The convention also will select 14 presidential electors, and will appoint a national committee, the post held for a score of years by Clark Howell, publisher of the Atlanta Constitution, and which is expected to be contested for by Major John S. Cohen, publisher of the Atlanta Journal.

FOUR-YEAR COURSE
BACKED BY NORMALS

Madison — Four-year courses leading to a degree in all nine state normal schools was the chief action endorsed by the annual convention of the Association of Normal School Teachers in business session Tuesday night. The convention adopted a resolution recommending that the board of regents take steps immediately to install the four-year course.

Considerable opposition to this action developed on the floor, several members declaring such is not feasible at this time because of the additional staff and new equipment which will be required. William Kille, secretary of the normal board, strongly advocated the passage of the resolution. The next legislature probably will be asked to make the necessary appropriations to carry out the program.

MYSTERY LETTER

South Dakota Senator Says He Heard of Communication to Prosecutor

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C.—A hint of a mysterious letter about land permits said to have been written by Solicitor Booth of the interior department to Senator Wheeler's Montana law firm, was heard Wednesday by the special senate committee investigating the senator's indictment on a charge of accepting money for appearing before the department in land matters.

Senator Sterling of South Dakota, a Republican member of the committee, said he had been told of such a letter and expected to produce it before the investigation was ended. He declined to reveal the source of his information or say who prepared a memorandum with the aid of which he was cross questioning L. V. Beaulieu, a western attorney, who said he also had "heard" of such a letter.

Beaulieu, the only witness at today's hearing, testified he had been chief counsel for Gordon Campbell, Montana oil man indicted with Senator Wheeler, but never heard of the senators' action for Campbell in land cases.

On the contrary, he said, Wheeler had told him he declined specifically to have anything to do with any of Campbell's litigation except in the Montana state courts.

Will Spoil Chances

'VETERAN CARRIES BURDEN'

Alabama Senator Says Measure Adds Enormously to Tax Burden of Nation

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C.—Convening two hours earlier than usual, the senate pressed toward a vote Wednesday on the soldier bonus bill with each speaker limited to 15 minutes. The principal controversy centered on the amendment for inclusion in the bill of a cash option provision, offered by Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York.

Although drafted by Democratic members of the finance committee the amendment was not submitted by them, leaders said, because they feared its adoption would prevent enactment of a bonus bill. Republican leaders have said they would vote to sustain a presidential veto if the bill contained the cash option proposal, but would vote to override a veto if the "insurance plan" would be disapproved by the executive.

The pending bill, reported to the senate by the finance committee, substantially as passed, by the House, would allow cash payments to veterans not entitled to more than $50 in adjusted service compensation and 20-year endowment insurance policies to others.

GIVES CASH OPTION

The Copeland amendment called for a cash payment in full to veterans preferring it to the insurance. Such a cash payment would require a larger immediate outlay for the government than the straight insurance proposition, and the amendment provided for issuance of $1,500,000,000 bonds under the second liberty loan act to take care of the payments.

Orenline the debate Wednesday, Senator Underwood, Democrat, Alabama, renewed the attack against the bonus. He advocated a pension law but declared it impossible to compensate the former soldiers for their service.

"You dishonor these protectors of our nation by offering them dirty dollars," Mr. Underwood said "or by proposing to give them these insurance policies."

"The men who fought on the first line of battle will have to carry this country in the next 20 years. You very cunningly fixed this bonus so that it won't be paid for 20 years and propose that these men instead of yourself will have to pay for it."

You're adding under this legislation an enormous tax to an already heavy burden. The debtors disagree as to the cost of the bill. One estimate says it will cost $2,300,000,000. The treasury says, Mr. McCoy, says it will cost $3,600,000,000 and the treasury is probably right."

FORD BID OPPOSED
BY MANUFACTURERS

Tennessee Factory Owner Claims Threats Used to Force Support

Washington, D. C.—Appearing as a representative of the Tennessee Manufacturers association, E. H. Williams, of Tullahoma, Tenn., Wednesday urged the senate to oppose the Ford bill. He said the bill would force the manufacturers to support the Ford bill, unless the contract recognized the control of the federal water power, assured the completion of dam No. 3, the distribution of power to adjoining states, the manufacturer of fertilizer in time of peace and munitions in time of war.

Chairman Norris said he had been informed that some merchants in the vicinity of Muscle Shoals were boycotting manufacturers who did not favor the Ford bill.

Mr. Williams replied that he had heard of a flour manufacturer being boycotted and threats had been made against his concern.

Coolidge Would Give Europe Economic Aid

President Believes Forthcoming Loan Will Not Violate Determination to Keep Out of Foreign Politics.

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1924 by the Post Pub. Co.
New York—President Coolidge has undertaken to convert the public opinion of the United States to an economic rather than political relationship with Europe.

Pointing out that formulas for peace, permanent conferences and even the revision of international law must await "a composed state of mind in Europe," the president has appealed to America to give its moral and material support to the Dawes-Young report for the economic reconstruction of Europe.

While Mr. Coolidge boldly defied critics inside the Republican party by announcing his unaltered belief in the necessity of American membership in the world court, he seized the opportunity afforded him in addressing the editors assembled at the annual luncheon of The Associated Press here to bring a campaign of education on the part of America shall play in helping Europe to economic stability. Mr. Coolidge asks in effect that the investors of the United States shall subscribe to the forthcoming loan, not merely to resuscitate German financiers but to aid in the general reparation settlement.

He significantly pointed out that the United States refuses to discuss reduction of allied war debts still owing to America but that this policy "never meant that America was not willing to lend its assistance to the solution of the European problem in any way that did not involve us in their purely political controversies."

Mr. Coolidge's address carries with it an appeal of transcendent importance. It means the turning point in the policy of isolation which has been erroneously interpreted, not only as political detachment but as economic seclusion. The president follows the note of Secretary Hughes' recent speech in arguing that political independence for America does not mean economic aloofness. Realizing that the pendulum has swung away from Europe too much, Mr. Coolidge attempts in his New York speech to bring American opinion back to economic realities—the very thing which league of nations advocates used in their early championship of the cause. Mr. Coolidge, however, draws the line sharply between political association and economic conditions. The one is a product of governmental action and agreement, and the other is the natural flow of funds and private business energy.

Strassburger Leads Governor by Nearly 200,000 Votes in Primary

By Associated Press
Philadelphia—Ralph Beaver Strassburger, wealthy Norristown publisher, running against Governor Gifford Pinchot in Tuesday's primary for delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention, has a lead of nearly 200,000 votes in less than half the election districts of the state.

Returns from 2,427 districts of the 5,119 in the state early Wednesday gave Strassburger 320,337 and Pinchot 122,470.

The other six candidates for Republican delegates-at-large, who were endorsed by the state organization—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon; United States Senators Pepper and Reed; William V. Vard, Representative in congress; W. Harry Baker, chairman of the state Republican committee, and Mrs. Elizabeth Price Martin—appeared on the basis of the incomplete returns received, to have run according to the plans of the leaders. Although none of the Republican delegates-at-large are pledged to any candidate, all are believed to favor the nomination of President Coolidge.

COOLIDGE CHOICE
EXPECTED IN WEEK

President Devotes Much Thought to Naming Temporary G. O. P. Chairman

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C.—Selections for the temporary and permanent chairmanship of the Republican national convention are being given considerable thought by President Coolidge and he is expected to make known his preferences before next Wednesday when the national committee's subcommittee on arrangements will meet at Cleveland.

Former Governor Lowden of Illinois is regarded by some as a likely choice among those mentioned for the temporary chairmanship. This opinion is based on the expectation that the president will favor the selection of a western or middle western man, not connected officially with the administration. Others under consideration are said to include Secretary Hughes, Senator Willie of Ohio, Charles G. Dawes, Representative Leachworth of Ohio, Senator Borah of Idaho, former Senator Beveridge of Indiana, Governors Hyde of Missouri and Groesbeck of Michigan and Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania.

WASHBURN MAYOR IN HOT SCHOOL FIGHT

"Boy" Executive and New Council Stir Up Horne's Nest

Washburn—Paul Ungrodt, this city's boy mayor, who, backed by the men, decisively defeated Senator Peavey's candidate, after a bitter campaign, has stirred up a fight among school board appointees. The city has a surplus of school officials if all who have been appointed as members of the board of education take a notion to qualify and demand their place on the board.

After the election the old council met under the direction of Mayor Edwin Bryan, who with five members of the old council appointed eight members of the board of education. It is asserted by the old council that it was their right to make their appointments and it is likewise asserted by the new mayor and his council that they have the right of appointment.

Mayor Ungrodt proceeded to make the school board appointments at the first meeting of the new council last Tuesday.

If the parties appointed by both mayors qualify and insist on taking their places on the board a legal contest is sure to ensue in order to establish the legal membership of the board.

LARGE ACREAGE OF ALFALFA ASSURED

County Agent Has Disposed of 1,000 Bottles of Inoculation Material

Outagamie county will have a larger and better crop of alfalfa than it has ever had, it is apparent from the observations of R. A. Amundson, county agricultural agent. Not only are there more farmers who have decided to try alfalfa and many more farmers increasing their acreage, but there also is a large demand for inoculation material to insure a better and more uniform growth.

The first supply of inoculation material received by the county agent from the Wisconsin College of Agriculture was exhausted in a few days. Culture was exhausted in a few days. He immediately made reservations for more, and it is now being received at his office at the rate of 100 bottles a day and is selling equally as fast. Farmers who have not been able to have their own orders filled have been supplied through the county agent's office.

This office has handled 1,000 bottles within the last week or two. This is enough to inoculate 20,000 pounds of alfalfa or for planting about 1,000 acres. Since a number of farmers of the county are obtaining this material through other mediums, a large acreage of healthy alfalfa is in prospect for this year and the coming years.

Appleton People Still Are Partial To Piano

In spite of the popularity of the ukelele and the saxophone among the young folks, the piano still remains as the most popular of all musical instruments. Appleton dealers declare.

At Lawrence Conservatory of Music most of the students are studying the piano. The piano is essential in all phases of music. It is explained. For instance, there are few students of voice at the conservatory who are not studying the piano also, for the two go hand in hand. To bring out beauty of the violin a piano accompaniment is almost necessary. Next to the piano, the violin has the largest number of followers at the Conservatory.

The piano, said Mr. C. G. Seeger, of Meyer-Seeger Music Co., is the classic of the instruments and it is the instrument that most people play. The violin is of course next to the piano in popularity. The saxophone is the leader of jazz instruments and any number of people have learned to play them. The flute and clarinet, according to Mr. Seeger, are much in demand, but have little call for bassoons, oboes or euphoniums. The banjo and the banjo ukelele are very popular right now, but it is impossible to imagine that they will endure. Mr. Seeger has handled several rare instruments, one of which is a Klotz violin which is now in the possession of Prof. Percy Pullinwider of Lawrence Conservatory of Music.

An interesting light was thrown upon this subject when F. Koletzke declared that people were going back to the accordion and that he had sold a number recently. The banjo ukelele, he said, was popular at present but he doubted very much if it would continue to be so for he believed it to be a fad. The radio, said Mr. Koletzke, is taking the place of musical instruments at present and many of the large music houses are dealing in radio sets for that reason, but the radio cannot take the place of musical instruments altogether for there must be music to broadcast and that can only be furnished by instruments.

F. H. Jebbs said that undoubtedly the piano is the most popular instrument and that the violin comes next. Mr. Jebbs has one pupil who is taking up the oboe, another who is studying the French horn, but the number of persons who study the cornet, saxophone, clarinet, drums, and trombone are evenly divided.

Irving Zuelke was of the same opinion as the others about the piano, for he felt that this instrument was more popular than any other. Among the instruments he sells, he has most call for the saxophone and ukelele, but he has little call for bassoons, oboes or other uncommon instruments.

ROOSEVELT PHOTOS FOR RURAL SCHOOLS

A quantity of enlarged pictures of Theodore Roosevelt have been received in the office of A. G. Matting, county superintendent of schools, for distribution among the schools. The pictures are suitable for framing and appropriate ceremonies may be held in connection with the unveiling thereof.

A model program may begin with prayer, followed by the singing of "America," the reading of the late president's last public message, the singing of Roosevelt's favorite hymn, "How Firm a Foundation," a flag ceremony, solo, an address by the principal speaker on the subject, "Theodore Roosevelt as President and As a Man," the unveiling exercises conducted by three small boys and three girls during which ceremony the "Star Spangled Banner" may be sung.

It is suggested that parents of pupils be invited to the school for the occasion. Appropriate exercises also are suggested for the observance of Roosevelt's birthday which is Oct. 27.

At Lawrence Conservatory of Music most of the students are studying the piano. The piano is essential in all phases of music. It is explained. For instance, there are few students of voice at the conservatory who are not studying the piano also, for the two go hand in hand. To bring out beauty of the violin a piano accompaniment is almost necessary. Next to the piano, the violin has the largest number of followers at the Conservatory.

The piano, said Mr. C. G. Seeger, of Meyer-Seeger Music Co., is the classic of the instruments and it is the instrument that most people play. The violin is of course next to the piano in popularity. The saxophone is the leader of jazz instruments and any number of people have learned to play them. The flute and clarinet, according to Mr. Seeger, are much in demand, but have little call for bassoons, oboes or euphoniums. The banjo and the banjo ukelele are very popular right now, but it is impossible to imagine that they will endure. Mr. Seeger has handled several rare instruments, one of which is a Klotz violin which is now in the possession of Prof. Percy Pullinwider of Lawrence Conservatory of Music.

Excellent training and good tone quality were shown both by the chorus and the soloists. Members of the Oshkosh choir and Mount Olive choir were guests at a dinner at the Appleton church previous to the program. The serving was done by the Ladies Aid society. Toasts were responded to by the Rev. Benjamin Schlueter, pastor of Grace church, and members of the chorus. The Rev. R. E. Ziesemer acted as toastmaster.

Stage Is Set For First Production Of "Tale Of The Fox" Here Tonight

Every detail which showed up in the dress rehearsal of the "Tale of the Fox" at the chapel on Tuesday evening has been gone over by instructors students from the Recreation Training school of Chicago who are assisting with the production for Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Only one dress rehearsal was possible before the opening night because of the Messianic presentation on Sunday and Monday.

Few people who see the production will realize with what great difficulty the stage and lighting effects have been worked out in the chapel which is without accommodations for so large a production. The rehearsal Tuesday evening was very long to enable each act to get the most out of its first chapel appearance.

A large number of people are taking part in the dances which will be included in the program. Those in the Chelsea Reach dance include the Misses Dorothy Donovan, Emma Hillton, Cecil Kleister, Mary Kleister, Margaret Plette, Evelyn Schinke, Mary Suchy, Effie Vandenberg, the dance of the hobbits cast is the Misses Alma Dietrich, Clara Dietrich, Ellen Homblette, Della Maas, Helen Ness, Anna Van Deraa, Josephine Van Handel, Leona Ness, Esther Beschta, Rosella Elich, Caroline Cecilia Fischer, Lillian Klahorst, Catherine Muegen-thaler, Theresa Muegen-thaler, Edna Rehender, Mary Van Handel and Alice Van Caster.

E. W. Wright is the captain of the wooden butchers and the butchers include Leo Murphy, Lester Batley, Joseph Schmidt, Theodore Ehke, Phelan, Van Ryzin, Louis Spaay, Ward Hillegas, Allen Winkenwerder, Leslie Boelsen, Henry Stoeger, Henry Stoegbauer and Leslie Gebhardt.

Miss Marie Heinemann will be fire in the machinery dance while Miss Gudrun Chamberlain will be electricity and Mrs. E. H. Wright will be steam. The girls in the machinery figures include Laurine Croll, Naomi Clark, Myrtle Lueters, Helen Parker, Cecelia Fischer, Effie Lindert, Frieda Lindert, Amelia Fischer, Nora Polzin, Gertrude Coblitz, Lucille Rhyner, Anna Gallistel, Helen Hart, Angella Lucassen, Theresa Gloudeumans and Mrs. H. E. Griffin.

Miss Lillian Smith will be "Mary" in the one-act play, "The Price of Coal" and John Schueker will be "Jack." Miss Kathryn Arnold will be one of the elderly women, "Ellen" and Mrs. W. H. Dean will be "Polly."

The cast is an unusual one in Appleton since it contains but few of the names of those who are usually included in the larger dramatic productions. Few of the many talented professional amateur actors who have done so much for Appleton's amateur dramatics have been put in the cast because the production is the story of the industries and the cast has been chosen largely from the industries which are used in the various presentations. While the production has taken on a professional air with all the work done by the Chicago students, the entire spirit of the performance has been kept amateur with the fun of producing as much in mind as the finished production.

Church's Gifts Will Buy Cows For Needy Folk

Daily milk rations for starving children in Germany will be provided through the generosity of Mount Olive Lutheran church, which raised $648 during the Easter season to be sent to the destitute.

The Rev. R. E. Ziesemer, the pastor, is in communication with a company in Germany which will purchase dairy cows for the Bethlehem institution at Berlin. This is an organization that functions something like the Salvation army in this country. It is taking care of about 1,500 people to whom it supplies food and clothing. Purchase of cows will be a permanent means of relief because the children will have their milk each day, and the church therefore devoted its Easter gifts to this cause.

Want Books Returned. Singers of the community chorus who still are in possession of scores of the "Messianic" have been requested by Dean Carl J. Waterman of Lawrence Conservatory of Music to return them to the conservatory as soon as possible. These books are to be preserved for future use.

ROTARIANS HERE NEXT WEEK SURE TO NUMBER 1,150

Maximum Estimate of Convention Throng Now Is Placed at 1,500

Appleton will entertain not less than 1,300 delegates at the Tenth district Rotary conference here next Tuesday and Wednesday, according to the registration reports received to date by George R. Wettengel, conference secretary.

This is the minimum estimate based on the reports, and the number may reach 1,500 under a maximum average.

Thirty-six out of forty-eight clubs in the district had reported when these figures were compiled. The maximum number these clubs will send is 861 men and 372 women and a minimum of 718 men and 238 women. The remaining clubs will bring in at least 110 men and 25 women.

This means a difficult task for the entertainment committee which must find accommodations for two nights for this number of people. Hotels from nearby cities and rooms in private homes will be utilized. At least 200 more rooms must be obtained.

Chairmen of all convention committees will be summoned into conference Friday to make the final arrangements. They are to have dinner with the executive committee at 6:15 at Vermeulen's.

Wives of Rotarians held a luncheon and mass meeting at Vermeulen's at 12:30 Tuesday noon to go over their part of the work of entertaining the convention, largely that of providing activities for the women who attend.

TURTIN RELEASED ON $5,000 BONDS

Appleton Man Indicted by Grand Jury Will Face Trial Late in Year

Ernest A. Turtin, who surrendered Tuesday to federal authorities in Milwaukee where he was indicted with Nick Simon and about 30 others in connection with the failure of the Simon Cheese Co., has been released on $5,000 bail. According to Roy J. Morse, United States district attorney, his trial probably will not be until late in summer or early in fall. Difficulty in arresting others named in the indictment is the reason for the delay.

According to Mr. Morse, many of the men against whom indictments were returned have left the country. Several are known to be in Switzerland, one is in the orient and another is said to have returned to Spain, his native land.

Turtin, it is alleged, was head of the butter department of the Simon Cheese Co. He was indicted for conspiracy to use the mails to defraud and to violate the postal laws.

THILMANY MILL IS HAMPERED BY WATER

Wisconsin Tissue division mill of Thilmany Pulp & Paper company is the only one in Appleton that has so far felt the effects of high water. The opening of four of the five gates in the lower dam caused the water to rise 12 inches Monday night, interfering with the company's waterpower. While the level of Lake Winnebago is normal, an increased amount of water is being let down the river and is particularly noticeable below the two lower dams. All the needles of the second dam were removed Tuesday and the water rushed down under Lake's bridge unobstructed.

200 Species Of Birds In Wisconsin In Warm Months

More than two hundred species of birds register at Wisconsin campsites in a year and of this number probably four-fifths have been known to summer within the state, according to Professor Walter E. Rogers, of the faculty of Lawrence college.

In early March, the first bird tourists of the year coming northward into Wisconsin do not find the state altogether unoccupied. Prof. Rogers says. About a dozen species of birds already are on the ground, some being permanent residents, others wandering tourists from the north who spend little time in what to them is the "South," he adds.

Among these are owls, downy woodpeckers, the crow, bluejay, song-bird, cedar bird, chickadee, nuthatch and English sparrow. A number tour northward with the advance of the season, while the rest settle down for their nesting period after a more or less shifting from one campsite to another.

DUCKS COME FIRST

Earliest arrivals from the south include ducks and geese, now classed as exclusive tourists because of a tendency to occupy the routes when freest of other travelers and these come in the situations which are hidden to the majority of birds that follow. It is rarely that ducks find permanent sites among up-state lakes, according to Prof. Rogers, but by stages wing to the great reaches of Canada where they remain until freezing of lakes send them southward.

Closely following in the wake of waterfowl and sometimes accompanying them is the vanguard of the land birds. Usually, the robin and blue-bird are the pathfinders, according to the observations of the professor, and with their arrival the tourists season begins in earnest.

On the heels of these come the earlier hawks and spring actually is adverted by a sunrise chorus from red-winged black birds, song sparrows and meadow larks.

The next tourists are a mixed group, of which the blue heron is the largest, measuring over four feet in height. The smallest are the four inchers in length, being only slightly larger than the hummingbird.

CALL OF THE LOON

Observations of Prof. Rogers has shown that in spite of its diminutive size, the ruby-crowned kinglet has a voice of tremendous power, capable of carrying a distance of two hundred yards. The strangest member of the party is designated as the loon, widely known for its unexcelled powers as a diver and for its wolfish call which is said to be one of the wildest sounds in all nature.

One of the most conspicuous of the early April tourists is the flicker, sometimes called the golden woodpecker, or high-hole, to mention only a few of the thirty different names by which the bird is known.

Arriving at the same time as the flicker is the hermit thrush, a bird regarded by John Burroughs as the one whose song is the sweetest of all music.

During April, other hawks straggle in and during the last part of the month tourists campsites are more or less frequented by snakes, wood thrushes, red headed woodpeckers and various native sparrows, having none of the disagreeable habits of their English cousin.

At this time swallows that make their home in cliffs and banks or build in trees, chimneys or barns arrive together with the purple martin, a companionable bird.

Not the least interesting of the April birds, according to Prof. Rogers, is the towhee, frequenter of thickets, and which forages leaves and grass like the domestic hen, but scratching with both feet of which a hen is incapable.

May birds include the brilliantly colored gold finch or "wild canary," yellow warblers, black-throated green warbler, scarlet tanager, rose-breasted grosbeak, indigo bunting, Baltimore oriole, bobolink and ruby-throated hummingbird. These are followed by the whip-or-will and night hawk, the most belated birds to arrive.

MODERN PORTIA TRIUMPHS

When Charles Eyles, charged with fraud, was arraigned in Old Bailey in London, he was asked to select a barrister for his defense. Looking over the small crowd of barristers present, he pointed to one and said "that young man," who turned out to be Mrs. Helena Norman. He was found not guilty. Judge Atherley-Jones at the conclusion of the trial commended the young woman for her skill and urbanity.

SELL GOOD GOODS AND ADVERTISE IS RULE FOR SUCCESS

W. E. Donahue, Chicago Tribune Expert, Addresses 200 Merchants Here

"Good times are here now and business always is as good as we make it."

That was the keynote of the message of W. E. Donahue, local display advertising manager of the Chicago Tribune, speaking before nearly 200 business men at a dinner in Vermeulen's dining room in Hotel Appleton at 6:30 Tuesday evening.

Mr. Donahue was brought here under the auspices of the W. E. DONAHUE Appleton Advertising club, but a large number of business men not identified with the club came from Marinette, Menominee, Green Bay, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac and other cities were in attendance.

In addition to the address given by the Tribune advertising manager, William Sterling of Oshkosh, president of the Northwestern Wisconsin Advertising association, spoke briefly on the conference of advertising men of the district which will take place at Oshkosh on May 7. A unusually strong program was announced.

IN GOOD HUMOR

The speaker of the evening was introduced by Ralph Gee, president of the local advertising club. Dr. Earl F. Baker led in community singing before and after dinner. When Mr. Donahue arose to speak, he was greeted with the singing of "Bible Will Shine Tonight," which seemed to put everybody in good humor and put Mr. Donahue's audience in a receptive mood for some of the "straight talk from the shoulder" that he had to offer.

In showing the business men the right and wrong methods of advertising the Chicago man certainly did not mince words. Yet he flavored his talk with bits of a rich fund of humorous anecdotes, not mere "Pat and Mike" jokes, but stories that helped to illustrate and "bring home" his message.

The strength of The Tribune, he said, was founded entirely on its advertising. The proper advertising, he brought out, to be measured by the five-fold yard stick of whether the medium is right, whether the time is right, whether the copy is right, whether the merchandise is right, whether the management is right.

CONSIDER MEDIUM

In choosing the medium, the advertiser should consider the extent of circulation, the kind of readers it reaches, its buying power and the response. One should not depend for success upon circulation alone, but should heed the time. The time as to days of the week, period of month, seasons and events should be noted. Advertising copy, he said, is the traveling salesman of a firm. Advertising must be intelligible, truthful and convincing. Don't insult the intelligence of the reader, be cautioned, for it is to be remembered that immigration has been restricted since 1917. The merchandise also must be equal to the description. The best advertising will not bring results if the management is bad.

Mr. Donahue related a number of incidents from store salesmanship to show that many good sales are lost through negligence on the part of the sales force that is not properly supervised.

DON'T BLAME PAPER

When an unsuccessful advertiser fails to apply the five-fold yardstick explained, it is wrong for him to blame the advertising copy, he said, for he contended there are many forms of advertising, but the most effective are newspapers and periodicals. For a retail business man there is no better medium than the home town newspaper, he declared. A newspaper is a great institution, he said. It is not only a mirror of events, but a text book, a market place, a place of amusement, a beauty parlor, a kitchen, in fact the greatest as well as the cheapest educational force in the world.

Starting out with the tale of the Irish soldier Mulligan, who in describing the difference between a general and a "fighter" related how the general prepared for battle and after calling "Mulligan, are you there?" gave the order, "Then let the battle commence." Mr. Donahue impressed upon his audience that a business field of 1924 is a battlefield and that there is no business except where a man fights and goes after it. One half of the battle consists of getting on top of the hill and the other half in staying there, he said.

BOOM BUSINESS

It is that kind of battle that placed the Chicago Tribune in the front rank of metropolitan newspapers and kept it there, he pointed out. In the midst of what was declared to be a business depression, this newspaper published a five-page advertisement supplement and also continued its advertising and circulation in the country in which the Tribune submitted the following five fundamentals:

1. Wheat is not king. 2. High wages is not cheaper than labor. 3. Why worry over Europe? 4. Only our politicians can hurt us. 5. This is the day of opportunity.

Emphasizing on these points, Mr. Donahue drew a comparison between wheat and corn to show that the country is not as dependent upon wheat as is believed. Since the invasion of business for industry, who begrudge labor of its high earnings power? he asked. There is no need of worrying over imports and exports when the five central states consume

ST. MATTHEW CHAPEL IS MOVED TO NEW LOCATION

The new church will be located on the old chapel site. A meeting of members will be held Friday evening when plans for the new edifice will be gone over. It is expected work upon the new church will be commenced the latter part of April.

more than the continent of Europe, have more automobiles than practically the entire eastern hemisphere. Businessmen should rather look to the ballot box and fight for good government as well as good business. Economic conditions of the country were never better, it was brought out.

The speaker pointed out to the growth of the Chicago Tribune, an institution which consumes 240 tons of paper daily, is erecting probably the largest office building in the world, owns several paper mills and will on May 3 publish a new national magazine.

ADVERTISING HINTS

Because the newspaper is in such close touch with family life, it is the best medium of advertising for the retail man, he argued. Retail merchants should, however, the advance of the advertising of the many factors. Advertising by manufacturers pays the way for local advertising, and merchant's should "tie up" with these national advertising campaigns in order to share in the benefits.

LARGE DELEGATION ATTENDS HEARING ON ROAD LOCATION

City Is Well Represented At Hearing in Oshkosh This Afternoon

Following a conference between city officials and private citizens in the city hall Tuesday afternoon, it was agreed that the city of Appleton, will send a delegation of both groups to the public hearing at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon at Oshkosh on the matter of relocating a part of Highway over a road to be extended south from the new Cherry-st bridge.

The city will be officially represented by Mayor John Goodland, Jr., and other members of the board of public works, which includes Theodore Berg, city attorney, Robert M. Connelly, city engineer, Alderman L. O. Hansen, chairman of the committee on streets and bridges, and Alderman C. D. Thompson, chairman of the finance committee.

OTHERS GO ALSO

Several members of the Appleton Chamber of Commerce and other persons interested in the road project also will attend the hearing. Among them are John R. Diederich, Joseph J. Plank, Hugh Corbett, Seymour Gmeiner, C. S. Boyd, and Stephen Baillie.

The county will be represented by P. H. Ryan, chairman of the county-state road and bridge committee and A. G. Brusewitz, highway commissioner.

The hearing was arranged as a result of opposition started by a group of Menasha business men who believe that Winnebago should not be made to bear the burden of the cost of extending a road from highway 15 to connect with the Cherry-st bridge when the city of Appleton will receive the chief benefits of the change.

An endeavor will be made by the Appleton delegation to show that the project will benefit Winnebago and motor traffic in general and that the cost of purchasing a right of way and paving only 505.5 feet of road can hardly be $35,000, as some have declared.

Engineer Connelly will present engineering data and show maps of the project and give estimates of the cost, while Mr. Berg, city attorney, will present the legal phase of the project.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards' produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—backache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime. Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

THIEVES AGAIN STEAL COAL FROM WOODLAWN SCHOOL

Automobile Truck Is Used to Haul Fuel From Grand Chute School

For the third or fourth time of the season thieves broke into Woodlawn school, Grand Chute, over the weekend and stole a quantity of coal. Members of the school district and of the board are up in arms over the matter and have decided to keep a closer watch on the school in the hope of apprehending the culprit.

It is believed that all thefts were committed by the same person. Each time it occurred during the weekend especially when there was a fall of snow which seemed to cover up the tracks of the visitor. It was observed, however, that the visit was made by automobile truck, which shows that the person is not so penurious as was first imagined. In spite of the fact that there was a snowfall, the visitor left an imprint of his shoes which affords the school officials a clue to work upon.

PROPERTY OWNERS FILL DRAIN DITCH AND CAUSE FLOODS

Upper Fifth Ward Residents Aroused Because of High Water

Property owners in the vicinity of DeForest-ave and Bennett and Story-sts are aroused over flood conditions in that block as the result of the filling in of a depression that serves for drainage during rains.

A culvert was built by the city some time ago on Story-st to afford the drainage, another was built on DeForest-ave to lead off the water into a storm sewer on Bennett-st a block away. The city also went to some expense in putting in a header on private property to take care of the excessive water flow.

The filling in of a portion of the channel with cinders by property owners has caused the natural flow of the water to be intercepted and improvements made by the city are rendered ineffective. Almost the whole block is flooded during heavy rains and automobiles have to be parked on the street to keep them out of water, it is said.

While these conditions exist in the Fifth ward, an overzealous advocate of a culvert on Seymour-st in the Fourth ward seems to have adopted a course in which he hopes to coerce the city into action. The place where the culvert is desired is in the vicinity of the new park purchased by the city. To show that the road is subject to washouts, some person has been obstructing the natural flow of water. Almost every day employees of the street department are sent down there to remove large cans and other things that were placed there intentionally, it is said.

CORBETT WILL ADDRESS HILBERT BUSINESSMEN

Hugh G. Corbett, secretary of the chamber of commerce, will be the speaker at a dinner of the Hilbert Commercial club at Hilbert Thursday evening. His subject will be "The Value of a State Chamber of Commerce to Wisconsin."

Mr. Corbett will show in his address that a state chamber of commerce has many other functions beside that of keeping legislative bodies within bounds. He has outlined the work of such an organization from the practical side, based partially on his contact with Illinois State Chamber of Commerce, which he helped organize.

X-Ray Calls Back Bloom Of Youth

Jazzing Red Corpuscles Into Action Is Latest Way to Restore Looks

Boston.—Jazzing your red corpuscles into action is the latest way to restore the bloom of youth to your cheeks.

And in Boston, Dr. Andreas F. Christian claims he is making old women look young—by stirring up a real blood revolt.

Ten, twenty, sometimes thirty years can be clipped from a woman's age, he says, as far as looks count.

It is simply a matter of waking up the sleeping red corpuscles and bringing them back to the front where they belong.

How does he do it? With his "beauty machine," a special X-ray device that literally burns up old skin, scars and pits.

This treatment of one's skin so outrages the red corpuscles in the body that they come rushing back to the outer veins to lay out a fresh layer of skin. Then, vigilant against another attack by the "beauty machine," the little atoms of life stay on the job, incidentally lending genuine color to midday's face.

It may be a mean trick on the corpuscles, but Dr. Christian says it is a great thing for the patient.

"I see no reason why the restoration of youthful beauty by X-ray should not be made part of the work of every clinic," the doctor says.

"The younger a woman starts to restore her youth the longer its effects will last."

"Of course, we can't make a school girl out of a woman 70, but we can make her look a good deal younger."

Dr. Christian's "beauty machine" was first invented by Dr. Nils R. Finson of Copenhagen.

"Most any X-ray specialist can give this beauty treatment," Dr. Christian asserts, "but let the woman in quest of beauty through this device first consult her family physician. It is necessary that functional disturbances be remedied as well as the superficial ones."

Household Suggestions

CLEAN PILLOWS

To clean pillows empty the feathers into a cheese-cloth bag and the securely, then wash in a big tub of strong white soapuds to which ammonia has been added. Rinse in clear hot-water twice and hang to drain and dry in the sun.

SCRATCHES

A scratch in furniture that goes no deeper than the varnish may be helped by holding a red hot poker an inch above it for the space of about half a minute, and rubbing well as soon as it cools with a mixture of alcohol, olive oil and vinegar in equal quantities.

AVOID VERMIN

Never set sticky dishes or bowls in your refrigerator or in your closet shelves. This is one sure way to draw vermin.

RESILVERING

If a mirror is badly blurred, resilvering it is the only remedy and it is better to take this to a professional than try to do it yourself.

KEEP THEM CLEAN

Never put away your coats or suits with mud on them; likewise if they are dusty, clean them before they go into the closet.

AIR LINES

In damp weather don't neglect to air your linen occasionally.

UNPAINTED WICKER

Scrub your unpainted wicker with a stiff brush and white soapuds, then rinse dry quickly and brush over with turpentine, sweet oil and alcohol in equal parts. Coat well and when dry rub over with a thick, soft cloth.

MEND QUICKLY

Mend the first ripped stitch in your gloves. The edges become stretched and it is impossible to do a neat job if you allow a rip to get any headway.

SHOE POLISH

Shoe polish that has become hard and dry can be put into good shape by adding a little turpentine.

LABELS

Homemade labels may be made by printing with ink on white paper. Since the back of this kind of

Great Social Urge Among Young Is Being Neglected, Says Worker

Chicago.—"Girls' mating places" is what Miss Mary McDowell, city commissioner of public welfare, calls the public dance halls which do a business of $5,000 paid admissions a week.

"Not in unfriendly criticism am I saying this," she explains, "but to point out the great social urge of normal young people, which is not being met by any home or church or public welfare organization."

"They are simply marriage markets on a commission basis, whereas an enlightened and benevolent society should provide freely for social needs. A husband at one of the great dance halls is obtainable at from 25 cents to $1.25, depending upon the price of admission."

The dance hall operators agree as to the matrimonial possibilities of their floors. One of them told Miss McDowell that seven couples, who met in his hall, had been married the preceding week.

"Thousands of them have been married from my halls during the 15 years since I began," says J. Louis Guyon, proprietor of Paradise, one of the largest dance halls on the West Side.

Guyon has put over his business successfully on a platform of opposition to modern eccentric dancing and jazz tunes.

"They get lonesome at home and come here for companionship. Sure they get married. That is what acquaintance leads to.

MISS MARY E. McDOWELL

"When I hear of one of my couples getting married it costs me a wedding present. But it's money spent to give me real happiness. About half a dozen of the boys working for me met their own wives in the hall."

R. G. Huntingtonhouse, the dean of dancing teachers in Chicago, with 44 years back of him has lost count of the weddings between his pupils.

"I've got 50 pupils now who are the third generation of my teaching," he says. "I taught their grandparents to dance, and their grandparents met in my classes. Then I taught their parents, and now I have them. And I'm going ahead for the fourth generation."

In Chicago there are 20,000 working girls who live in rented rooms and have no place to meet or entertain company, according to Miss McDowell. There are at least that many more living in homes so crowded they cannot bring in their friends.

"These girls are left to shift for themselves for amusement, and they do wonderfully well," says Miss McDowell.

"Dance halls here in general are well conducted. There are a dozen large public halls where the management co-operates with social welfare agencies to the limit to provide decent amusement."

"When I am working for is to have more places of safe, clean recreation operated by the city. The ideal arrangement is to have every school open on evenings as a community center. Then we can provide for the social needs of all the people."

Hedge Plants Found For Various Purposes

We had to travel to England years ago to see many fine hedges—for the well-kept splendidly growing hedge has been one of the distinctive features of the English landscape for many centuries.

Whether we have come at last to appreciate the value of a well grown hedge to our real estate; whether we are trying to copy the old English landscape; or whether our country's supply of stones and rails has commenced to give out; it is now a fact that the hedge is being used more and more each year to bound handsome estates and to mark off the grounds of the most simple and unpretentious home place.

HEDGE AND WIND-BREAK

Where you want a fine tall growing hedge plant, a good choice is always the American Arborvitae. This has the added advantage of being evergreen and ornamental in winter as well as in summer; and a touch of evergreen is a great addition to the home grounds in the bleak winter days.

If you prefer a flowering hedge—the old-fashioned lilac (Syringes) is one of the best beloved of the old time shrubs, and will form a very fine flowering hedge with a wealth of fragrance in the spring. There are in addition to the old varieties of this many new sorts that are very beautiful; look these up in your nursery catalogues, and see what a range of color is now available in this splendid shrub.

Then there is the (Coronarius) Philadelphia that smells like the old fashioned orange blossoms of bridal glory, and makes a very satisfactory tall flowering hedge. There are many varieties of this hardy, easily grown shrub from which to choose.

MOST POPULAR

For the hedge of medium height "California Privet" is used more than all other hedge plants together. It may be allowed to grow as it will—in which case it flowers beautifully for a long time—or kept trimmed to any desired form and size. It has such a dense habit of growth that it forms a fine sturdy fence. Hobo or Amador River North, are two newer varieties which are much harder than the California Privet, and can be used where there is any danger of the winter killing.

Next to Privet, Barberry Thunbergii is the most valuable of all hedges. It is a lovely plant, of dwarf habit, with dainty foliage that turns to a beautiful reddish shade in the autumn; it has the advantage over the Privet that it stays compact and even, without the necessity for trimming.

The early spring is an excellent time for hedge planting. The whole space that is to receive the hedge plants should be thoroughly plowed up or dug, and a good supply of coarse ground bone and acid phosphate, as well as some potash, should be added to the manure and mixed well into the soil. If a dense hedge is wanted, the plants should be set out quite close—six to twelve inches being sufficient for privet and barberry. The best method, with privet, is to "stagger" the plants in a double row.

All hedges should be clipped very severely for a year or two until the strong growth near the ground has been sufficiently encouraged, for a really perfect hedge must have numerous small branches near the ground. While the hedge is getting its first growth, the early spring is the best for pruning it.

When the hedge is well established, it can be pruned in the late summer or early fall. The hedge is pruned by cutting them all ways ready for use.

CLEAN BRUSHES

Clean your cleaning brushes occasionally with hot borax soapuds. This cleans them without loosening the bristles.

FASHION HINTS

KASHA LININGS

Kasha cloth linings are found in some of the smart silk coats, giving a warmth lacking in silk but contributing nothing in weight.

FOR HAT BRIM

Two very large tulips, one black and the other white, hang from the wide brim of a hat of white crepe.

WHITE, CREAM LACE

White or cream lace this season is most frequently made up over a black satin foundation, while the black lace gown is mounted on a slip of flesh-colored satin.

SMART INDEED

Three-piece suits of bengaline are very smart indeed, particularly when the upper part of the dress is white georgette or crepe de chine.

SPORT FROCK

An unusually attractive frock for sport wear is of yellow crepe de chine with a brown suede belt worn low about the hips.

TAILORED LAPELS

Tailored lapels with notches are seen not only on suits but on the tailored frocks.

Things To Know When Planting Spring Garden

As a general thing, manure used exclusively in a hill of rich garden soil gives too much vine growth for tomatoes and other vegetables. A dressing of nitrate of soda, acid phosphate and muriate of potash, applied in the hill and well mixed with the soil, gives the best results.

The tomato succumbs to frost readily, so the young plants should not be set out until May tenth or fifteenth in the latitude of New York. Tomato plants should be placed about four feet apart. Set the plants low—a trifle lower than the surface of the garden.

In garden culture, the greatest yield and best conditions for ripening the fruit are obtained by training the vines upon a pole or trellis. They should be tied to the support loosely so as not to choke the growing stem.

Tomatoes must be regularly and carefully cultivated. In working around large plants, there is danger that the fine rootlets which are to reinforce them through the bearing season may be cut. It is better to discourage weeds and conserve moisture by drawing the soil over the hill about the plants instead of cutting it with a hoe.

Sweet corn is one of the products of the vegetable garden which must be eaten very quickly after it has been picked if it is to be enjoyed to the utmost. It can be grown on any rich, well-drained soil, and it does not need to have the soil so thoroughly prepared as is necessary for some of the other garden crops, like onions, for instance, or strawberries.

Plant the extra-early and early varieties of corn when the cherries are in bloom; the second-early and main crops when the apples are in flower. This rule will hold true pretty much all over the country, and is better than setting any absolute dates, because it is far more accurate, being a better indication of the advance of the season.—From The Designer Magazine, for May.

SISTER MARY WILL HELP YOU GROW THIN OR FLESHY BY DIET

People who think themselves possessed of too much weight are turning to diet as a means of reducing, but occasionally one who follows this practice finds he either fails to lose weight or actually adds a few pounds. Then there are others who try to reach a normal weight by planning their menus carefully. The Post-Crescent will help guide these people to correct eating to achieve their purpose by publishing on this page menus scientifically written as a reducing diet and others prepared correctly to gain weight. These are written by Sister Mary, whose recipes are used in almost every home where the Post-Crescent circulates. The first will be found today on this page.

Straight Lines Are Fashion's Latest Decree

Fashion decrees straight lines, but nature delights in curves and has been far too generous with many of us in this respect. However, next best to a naturally slim boyish figure is a corse that will help us attain the approved fitness. It's a far cry from the one-time highbusted, long, heavily boned, tightly laced corset of yesterday to the low, graceful, lightly boned combination of adjustable elastic and firm fabric that the fashionable woman wears today. Our waistline can enjoy its normal size and only our hips must be made to conform! And there's a different type of so-called elastic girdle for every figure—slender, medium or heavy.

Those who have discarded a corset entirely will really have to return to one now that the two-piece tailleur has become so much the vogue.

Brassieres, too, have assumed a place of their own which no longer restricts their use to the full-busted women. The cling-to-the-figure plainness of the one-piece dress and slip-

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN (A Menu for the Stout and Thin) EAT AND—Lose Weight—Gain Weight—

One-half grapefruit, 1 poached egg on 1 cup spinach, 1 large fig stuffed with 5 almonds blanched, and shredded, 2 lamb chops, 4 tablespoons string beans, 1 cup shredded cabbage, 2 thin slices crisp whole wheat toast, 1 thin slice gluten bread, 1 gluten roll, 1 pint skimmed milk. Total calories, 1185. Protein, 243; fat, 370; carbohydrate, 572. Iron, .0244 gram.

Would you believe that two innocent tablespoonsful of lemon ice would add 155 calories of carbohydrate to your menu? They will, for I planned a treat for you and then had to retract after figuring.

Stew dry figs until tender in water to cover. Do not sweeten. Drain and fill with chopped nuts and serve with a little of the liquor in which they were cooked.

The spinach is cooked in its own juice, finely chopped and seasoned with salt and pepper. Form into a neat-like shape and drop a poached egg in the hollow.

The cabbage is seasoned with salt and pepper and lemon juice. A few celery seeds scattered through the dish make a change.

The beans should be served for the reducing diet before seasoning with butter for the rest of the family.

One-half grapefruit with 1 table-spoon sugar, 1 large mashed potato cake, 2 slices broiled bacon diced in ½ cup white sauce on toast, 1 poached egg on 1 cup spinach with 1 table-spoon melted butter, 2 large stuffed figs with 2 tablespoons whipped cream, 1 cup cream of corn soup with 1 tablespoon whipped cream, ½ cup well buttered popcorn, 2 table-spoons diced potatoes in 4 table-spoons cream, sauce, 2 lamb chops, 1 medium sized sweet potato (baked), 4 tablespoons string beans in 4 table-spoons cream, ½ cup shredded cabbage with 1 tablespoon chopped nuts and 2 table-spoons oil mayonnaise, 2 bran muffins, 1 cinnamon roll, 2 dinner rolls, 4 tablespoons butter, 2 table-spoons lemon ice folded into 2 table-spoons whipped cream with 2 table-spoons hot thick maple syrup poured over the whole, 1 pint whole milk. Total calories, 4724. Protein, 416; fat, 2285; carbohydrate, 2023. Iron, .0384 gram.

Remember that much depends on your height and occupation when figuring he required number of calories. If you are active in outdoor sports (including housecleaning), you will need all of these fat calories even if you are short in stature. But if you are leading an inactive life with just enough outdoor exercise to keep you fit my suggestion is to decrease the whipped cream.

These figs are stuffed with English walnuts and raisins chopped, and moistened with some of the fig juice. (Copyright, 1924, NDA Service, Inc.)

MILLIONS SPENT IN COSMETICS

The American woman, collectively speaking, spends about $150,000,000 a year in hair nets, $145,000,000 for scented soaps and $65,000,000 for miscellaneous cosmetics. These are the three essential items, but the grand total for all kinds of toilet preparations is $750,000,000.

BETTER WIVES AND MOTHERS

The emancipation of woman as evidenced by the evolution in dress from steel stays that made a twenty-inch waist and the long street sweeping skirts to the sports clothes of the present day has certainly had its effect upon the health of women. With proper attention to diet and exercise a race of better wives and mothers is assured by it. If, however, ailments develop as evidenced by irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness and irritability, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be depended upon to overcome them. Thousands of women testify to its success. adv.

MARYLAND STRICT WITH AUTO SPEEDERS

Statistics of Maryland and Massachusetts, where strict method of traffic control are being employed, point to speeding as the major cause of automobile accidents.

According to a report made by George M. Graham of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, 158 out of 522 traffic deaths in these two states were caused by speeders. Intoxication caused 10 per cent of the accidents.

As a result of the traffic deaths throughout the country, the N. A. C. C., which includes almost the entire auto industry, has pledged itself to help enforce laws for more rigid control of traffic violators.

"The automobile industry pledges its full support to every judge who imposes jail sentences for proved offenses, no matter how severe may be the penalty," Graham writes. "We believe also in the suspension or the revocation of the license as a penalty. We suppose that, in addition to all penalties now imposed, the violator should forfeit possession of his automobile according to the seriousness of the offense."

May will be a month of examinations for pupils in the county rural school system. Examination centers as selected by A. G. Meating, county school superintendent, are Bear Creek, Hortonville, Appleton and Kaukauna, for examinations to be held on May 9, and Black Creek, Seymour and Shiocton, for examinations to be held on May 16. The county superintendent and Miss Nellie McDermott and A. L. Collar, supervising teachers, will be in charge.

Seventh and eighth grade pupils will take their examinations at the examination centers. Questions will be sent the teachers for sixth grade examinations are to be written at the schools on May 9. Holding of these examinations on one day is made possible by the use of the standardized tests inaugurated this year. The papers are to be graded and sent to the superintendent's office.

Before promotion can be made, the pupils six weeks' report cards are to be mailed to the superintendent's office for his signature. Mr. Meating suggests that this be done two or three weeks before the end of the year. The final standings may be added to the cards later. Cards for the first and second grades need not be sent in; all others require the signature of the superintendent. Credit will be noted on the report cards for those pupils who have finished the prescribed reading circle course.
